(Route Length: 20 km)

Alassio and Laigueglia, shopping and charming sea atmosphere..

1) ALASSIO

Alassio is one of the smartest seaside resort in Liguria. Its famous wall “muretto” with more than 550 coloured ceramic tiles, signed by the most famous actors, writers and sportsmen, is the symbol of the glorious period of the “Dolce Vita”.

Opposite to the “muretto”, you can have a break in the memorable “Caffè Roma” which was the 50s international jet-set meeting point.

Alassio is one of the most favourite shopping destination, particularly along the “Budello”, typical narrow street, parallel to the sea, between old houses from the 14th and 15th centuries. Here you can find modern shops with fancy windows. It is also worthwhile to visit the small tourist harbour, where the little church of the Fishermen “Cappelletta dei Pescatori” overlooks the area. Trips by ship start from the Pier “Bestoso” to the Gallinara Island.

From Alassio, walking along the promenade (about 2 Km) you can easily reach Laigueglia, a small romantic village along the sea.

2) LAIGUEGLIA, fishermen’s Village

Laigueglia has kept its charming atmosphere as an old sea village with its narrow paths “carruggi”, the small squares on the sea, pink houses close to the main church of San Matteo and the Saracen Tower (1564), as a control station against the pirate invasion. From the little pier you can have a wonderful view of the village and you can also have a coffee or an ice-cream in one of the coffeehouses, facing on the small squares.
